Police Report: Officer Christopher Briggs – 171 calls, (49 reports) - 1 narcotic, 1 overdose/Nar can used, 1 theft from auto, 1 (1st degree) burglary, 3 (2nd degree) burglary, 3 (4th degree) burglary, 2 destruction of property, 4 traffic stops, and 12 suspicious persons.

Speaker(s):

Councilman Todd K. Crandell – Only was able to stay for a brief period. Discussed - early voting (not a fan of early), looking for community support. Todd expressed his disappointment for not attending crab feast but he overbooked with a family event, however, will provide funds for his table.

Q: VA hospital weights heavy with members, Todd said we are working on arranging a meeting to find out what happens, I hope it happens before the election. Doug is working on it. The lease deal may be over, waiting to hear.

Q: Old furniture property warehouse is not good it is a dump. Todd request a call to his office with address and will send code enforcement.

Q: Bar on Bethsteel location? Todd hopes that Tradepoint will help with improving the area.

Q: Parking area with school? County is not working with us. December when new board and administration changes we hope to move forward.

Mr. Roger Hayden - Wanted to stress the importance of getting out to vote. Don't make party the big thing but make success the big thing. Pay attention to the questions before you vote. VOTE, VOTE, VOTE

Q: What kind of math is being taught? Rodger is running for reappointed not elected. There will be 4 reappoints. I have a list of request for the school to change. We need to look at putting basics back into education. Our youth need to be productive members of society.
